Year 7 and 8 – Humanities Project Two

This task is in replacement of your history, geography and RS lessons. You will be required to hand it in to your Geography teacher in your first lesson back.

What does it mean to be sustainable? Your task is to create a campaign for the local area encouraging people to be more sustainable. As part of this task you must also:

- Evidence of research on oceanic plastic pollution e.g. written notes
- Profiles of key environmental campaigners in the last hundred years
- Research of the concept of Stewardship in Christianity e.g. written notes

Your campaign could be in the form of a newspaper article, several online blogging posts, a snapchat story, a poster campaign (more than one poster, an essay, a letter to your local MP or if you have a specific idea of how you’d like to present your campaign check it with your teacher first by emailing humanities@kps.woodard.co.uk

Your work will be marked on effort using the statements below to inform the grading given:

Effort 1 – More needed

Your works is inconsistent, with some aspects unfinished or completed carelessly.

You haven’t given focus to all aspects of the task e.g. history, geography or religion

You’ve not shown a thirst for knowledge in your presentation, you’ve just presented basic features about the area.

Effort 2 – Expected (Good)

Your effort has shown a determination to present a good argument about the North East.

You’ve shown pride in the presentation of your work.

You have communicated your ideas well and have given a considered approach to the task.

You’ve shown a thirst for knowledge in your work giving details of the history, geography and spiritual aspects of life in the North East.

Effort 3 – Very good

Your effort has shown a determination to present a good argument and has considered all aspects of the task given.

You’ve shown pride in your presentation of your work and taken care to present your work well.

You have communicated your ideas clearly and with a very good eye for detail.

You’ve shown a thirst for knowledge in your work giving details of not just the history, geography and spiritual aspects of life in the North East but also considered how they show its uniqueness.

Effort 4 – Outstanding

Your effort is outstanding and you are meticulous in your work in order to present a piece of work considering the unique nature of the North East.

You’ve demonstrated that you take pride in how you present your work showing care and detail in how you’ve chosen to hand in the given project.
You have communicated your ideas in an excellent manner and taken ownership of your own learning.

Your thirst for knowledge is clear you have looked at all aspects of the given project and considered the uniqueness of the North East in a non-homogenous manner.